

Rich Baker - Rich Baker lives and works in West Newbury. He runs his own company, New England Intellectual Property, from 291 Main Street, where he helps inventors obtain patents from the US Patent Office and assists patent owners make money from their patents. Mr. Baker is also an inventor, named on 27 US patents. Rich, his wife Leisa (a Housing Authority board member), and son David have lived on Middle Street for the last 25 years. Previously, Rich served on the Pentucket Regional School Committee, and has run campaigns for Congress and for Governor's Council.