Minor edits recommended to grammar and spelling. There was some discussion about the accuracy of the dissenting opinion for the SRO article by the members who voted in support of the article. The decision was made to leave the language as-is as the split opinions on the article are the reason for having both rationals included.

5. Communications.

Beaudoin reports that he is still waiting on the CIC chairman to get him the updated asset replacement data for the CIC's appendix in the town meeting booklet.

All committee members with requested edits to the meeting booklet need to get Forbes their changes by Wednesday.
